Item 4 Advisory Business

Financial Answers, LLC was organized in 2012 and has been registered with the Connecticut Department of Banking as a Registered Investment Adviser firm since 2012. Financial Answers, LLC applied for registration with the Commonwealth of Massachusetts on August 2, 2016. Financial Answers, LLC applied for registration from the State of New York on January 24, 2020. Sarah Maskill is 100% owner and sole principal of the firm.

We provide Fee-Only, as-needed financial planning, education, and investment advice services to individuals from all walks of life. Services may be general in nature or focused on a particular area of interest or need, depending on the individual's unique circumstances.

An estimated 60% of our activities involve providing financial planning and education in the areas of cash flow and debt management, retirement planning, risk management, tax planning, insurance planning, estate planning, and college funding, and an estimated 40% of our activities involve providing investment advice, which may include advice on asset allocation and investment selection. Financial Answers, LLC does not accept any assets under management.

First, we gather information about the client's personal financial situation and conduct a meeting with the client to clarify the client's personal financial information and determine the client's specific needs, objectives, goals and tolerance for risk. Then, we analyze the client's current financial situation and possible future scenarios, when appropriate. Next, we present a summary of significant observations, assumptions and recommendations in each area we were engaged to provide advice. The engagement is concluded upon completion of the presentation. The client may re-engage us as needed. Periodic reviews are recommended, and it is the client's responsibility to initiate these reviews.

In circumstances where a client is better served by continuous portfolio management, we recommend other advisors. These advisors are recommended based on cost, best execution, tax efficiency for clients, experience, compliance record, and client preference.

Item 5 Fees and Compensation

Individual Clients:

Financial Answers, LLC charges fees on a Fee-Only, hourly basis for individual clients. Fees for financial planning and investment advice services are $240 per hour, billed in six-minute increments. We may also charge fixed fees that are based on our hourly rate multiplied by the approximate number of hours that are anticipated to provide the requested service. Reduced fees are negotiable at our sole discretion.

We may require a deposit for engagements in the amount of the lesser of $500 or half of the total estimated fee. The balance of fees due is payable immediately upon presentation of the advice to the client. Fees will not be collected for services to be performed more than six months in advance and in excess of $500.

All clients:

Proposed service and fee arrangements are detailed in the written Client Service Agreement. Either party may terminate the Agreement upon written notice within five days of signing the Agreement, at which time no fees are due. If the client terminates the Agreement after this date, the client is responsible for any fees already incurred.

In connection with using our services, the client may also incur separate fees and expenses that are charged by mutual funds, exchange traded funds, and/or other types of investments or insurance. We recommend that the client review the prospectus, and other product information, for a complete explanation of these fees and expenses. In addition, the client may also incur separate transaction costs or administration fees from brokerage firms. We recommend that the client obtain a complete schedule of fees from their brokerage firm. We do not receive any portion of these other fees. We do not receive commissions or third-party payments of any kind. The only compensation we receive is in the form of hourly or fixed fees paid directly by the client.

Item 6 Performance-Based Fees and Side-By-Side Management

Financial Answers, LLC does not charge fees based on a share of capital appreciation of the funds of an advisory contract, also known as performance-based fees. We do not provide ongoing investment management services, so issues related to side-by-side management are not applicable.

Item 7 Types of Clients

Financial Answers, LLC provides its services to individuals. We do not require minimums as to income, assets, net worth, length of engagement, revenues generated, or other conditions for engaging our services.

Item 8 Methods of Analysis, Investment Strategies and Risk of Loss

If Financial Answers, LLC is engaged to provide investment advice, first, we gather information about the client's personal financial situation and conduct a meeting with the client to clarify the client's personal financial information and determine the client's specific needs, objectives, goals and tolerance for risk. We employ a fundamental, long-term, buy-and-hold philosophy in regards to investment advice. We utilize passive and active approaches to investing, as client needs, accessibility, and market conditions warrant.

Then, we recommend a proper asset allocation based on the client's personal financial situation. We make asset allocation and investment policy decisions using our best judgment to help the client achieve their overall financial objectives and goals while minimizing risk exposure. We believe that the appropriate allocation of assets across diverse investment categories (i.e. stock vs. bond, foreign vs. domestic, large cap. vs. small cap., high quality vs. high yield, etc.) is the primary determinant of portfolio returns and is critical to the long-term success of a client's financial objectives and goals. Then, we recommend specific investments to fill out the recommended asset allocation. These recommendations can accommodate client restrictions. Next, we recommend that the portfolio be maintained by rebalancing annually and/or making adjustments as needed.

While we believe our investment strategy is designed to potentially produce the highest possible return for a given level of risk, it cannot guarantee that an investment objective or goal will be achieved. Some investment decisions made by us may result in loss, which may include the original principal amount invested. The client must be able to bear the various risks involved in investing, which may include market risk, liquidity risk, interest rate risk, currency risk or political risk, among others.

Item 9 Disciplinary Information

Neither Financial Answers, LLC, nor any of its personnel, have been the subject of a reportable legal or disciplinary event.

Item 10 Other Financial Industry Activities and Affiliations

Neither Financial Answers, LLC, nor any of its personnel, are affiliated with or maintain a material relationship with another financial industry entity. Our policies require that we conduct business activities in a manner that avoids actual or potential conflicts of interest between the firm, personnel and the client, or that may otherwise be contrary to law. We will provide disclosure to the client, prior to and throughout the term of an engagement, of any conflicts of interest which will or may reasonably compromise our impartiality or independence.

Item 11 Code of Ethics, Participation or Interest in Client Transactions and Personal Trading Financial Answers, LLC has adopted a code of ethics that sets forth the basic policies of ethical conduct for all associated persons of the firm. We accept the obligation not only to comply with the mandates and requirements of all applicable laws and regulation, but also to take responsibility to act in an ethical and professionally responsible manner in all professional services and activities. We will be happy to provide a copy of our code of ethics to any client or prospective client, upon request.

Neither Financial Answers, LLC, nor any of its personnel, are authorized to recommend or effect a transaction for a client involving any security in which the firm or a related party has a material financial interest, such as in the capacity as an underwriter, advisor to the issuer, etc. Additionally, we are prohibited from borrowing from or lending to a client, unless that client is an approved financial institution or is an immediate family member. In such instances, authorization for the loan must be granted in advance and documented in writing.

At times personnel and related parties may hold positions in investments (mutual funds) that are also recommended to the client. We may make recommendations or take actions with respect to investments that may differ in the nature or timing from recommendations made to, or actions taken for, other clients or personnel. However, at no time will personnel or any related party receive preferential treatment over the client.

Item 12 Brokerage Practices

Financial Answers, LLC is not affiliated with any bank, custodian or brokerage firm. If we are engaged to provide investment advice, we will offer to use the service provider with whom the client's assets are currently maintained. If the client prefers to use a new service provider, we will recommend one based on the need, overall cost and ease of use for the client.

The only compensation we receive is in the form of hourly or fixed fees paid directly by the client. Therefore, we do not receive any additional compensation, soft-dollar or otherwise, when the client engages a recommended brokerage firm or other service provider.

We do not require or engage in directed brokerage involving our accounts. We recognize our obligation in seeking best execution for our clients; however, it is our belief that the determinative factor is not always the lowest possible cost, but whether the selected service provider's transactions represent the best qualitative execution while also taking into consideration the full range of services provided. Therefore, we will seek services involving competitive rates, but that may not correlate to the lowest possible rate for every transaction. We periodically review our policies regarding recommending service providers, in light of our duty to seek best execution.

Item 13 Review of Accounts

Financial Answers, LLC does not provide continuous monitoring of its financial planning and investment advice services. Periodic reviews are recommended and it is the client's responsibility to initiate these reviews.

Item 14 Client Referrals and Other Compensation

Financial Answers, LLC does not receive, nor does it pay, any fees for client referrals.

Item 15 Custody

Financial Answers, LLC does not take custody of client cash, bank accounts or securities. The client's cash, bank accounts and securities will be maintained by unaffiliated, qualified custodians, such as banks, brokerage firms, mutual fund companies, and transfer agents. The client will receive account statements directly from their service provider. These statements are typically provided on a monthly or quarterly basis or as account transactions occur. We will not ask for, nor accept, any of the client's account access information, such as username and/or password, even for the accommodation of the client or the client's legal agent. Firm personnel will not act as trustee for, or have full power of attorney over, a client account.

Item 16 Investment Discretion

Financial Answers, LLC does not provide discretionary investment management services.

Item 17 Voting Client Securities

Financial Answers, LLC does not vote client securities. The client will maintain responsibility for directing the manner in which proxies are voted, as well as all other elections relative to mergers, acquisitions, tender offers or other events pertaining to the client's investments. The client will receive their proxies and other solicitations directly from the custodian or transfer agent for their investments.

Item 18 Financial Information

Due to the nature of our services, an audited balance sheet is not required, nor included in this disclosure document. Financial Answers, LLC does not have any financial conditions that require disclosure.

1. The CERTIFIED FINANCIAL PLANNER™, CFP® and federally registered CFP (with flame design) marks (collectively, the "CFP® marks") are professional certification marks granted in the United States by Certified Financial Planner Board of Standards, Inc. ("CFP Board").

The CFP® certification is a voluntary certification; no federal or state law or regulation requires financial planners to hold CFP® certification. It is recognized in the United States and a number of other countries for its (1) high standard of professional education; (2) stringent code of conduct and standards of practice; and (3) ethical requirements that govern professional engagements with clients. Currently, more than 83,000 individuals have obtained CFP® certification in the United States.

To attain the right to use the CFP® marks, an individual must satisfactorily fulfill the following requirements:

Education - Complete an advanced college-level course of study addressing the financial planning subject areas that the CFP Board's studies have determined as necessary for the competent and professional delivery of financial planning services, and attain a Bachelor's Degree from a regionally accredited United States college or university (or its equivalent from a foreign university). CFP Board's financial planning subject areas include insurance planning and risk management, employee benefits planning, investment planning, income tax planning, retirement planning, and estate planning;

Examination - Pass the comprehensive CFP® Certification Examination. The examination, administered in 10 hours over a two-day period, includes case studies and client scenarios designed to test one's ability to correctly diagnose financial planning issues and apply one's knowledge of financial planning to real world circumstances;

Experience - Complete at least three years of full-time financial planning-related experience (or the equivalent, measured as 2,000 hours per year); and Ethics - Agree to be bound by CFP Board's Standards of Professional Conduct, a set of documents outlining the ethical and practice standards for CFP® professionals.
